

Giving a short presentation

Student A

1 Look at these sentences from a presentation. Put them in the order that you say them. Then check your answers with your partner.

- a So, that's everything I wanted to say about ...
- b Good morning and thank you all for coming.
- c That's the end of my talk. To sum up ...
- d Today I would like to talk about ...

2 Work in pairs. Look at the presentation in the picture stories. With your partner, imagine that you have just been to Rome and prepare to make a presentation under the following headings:

- a) your trip b) Rome's famous sights c) Rome's history d) food in Rome e) people in Rome

3 Deliver your presentation to the class.

Giving a short presentation

Student B

1 Look at these sentences from a presentation. Put them in the order that you say them. Then check your answers with your partner.

- a Let me start by telling you about ...
- b The final part of my presentation is about ...
- c Are there any questions?
- d Now, let's move onto ...

2 Work in pairs. Look at the presentation in the picture stories. With your partner, imagine that you have just been to Rome and prepare to make a presentation under the following headings:

- a) your trip b) Rome's famous sights c) Rome's history d) food in Rome e) people in Rome

3 Deliver your presentation to the class.