Speaking strategies

Asking for more information

What's it like?	How was it _____?
How _____ is it?	What is it?
Who _____ it?	When was it _____?
Where is it?	Why was it _____?

Partner A

1. Do you know the statue of Hachikō the dog, standing alone and waiting for his owner?
2. It's outside a train station in Tokyo, Japan.
3. Well, it's actually the second statue of Hachikō. It was created by the son of the original artist.
4. The second statue was created in 1948, after World War II. The original statue was melted down in 1944 because the metal from the statue was needed during the war.
5. The original statue was made of bronze. So is the statue that's there now.
6. The artist used a plaster mould to make the bronze statue.
7. It's 87 centimetres high and 65 centimetres wide. That's the size of a real-life dog.

Partner B

1. Yes, I do. _____ exactly?
2. Right. _____ created _____ ?
3. Really? _____ created? And _____ a second statue created?
4. Really? _____ was _____ made of?
5. _____ made?
6. That's interesting. _____ is the bronze statue of Hachikō the dog?
7. Amazing!
